In collaboration with

- The American Academy of Ophthalmology (AAO)
- The Association of University Professors of Ophthalmology (AUPO)
- The Arab Board of Ophthalmology
- The Egyptian Ophthalmological Society (EOS)
- The Middle-East African Council of Ophthalmology (MEACO)

Sponsored by:

Greetings

It is my honor and appreciation to introduce this ophthalmology program directors' course organized by the international council of ophthalmology here in our beautiful city. To be here in front of these selected guests from different ophthalmology departments in the Arab world, lectured by an outstanding international faculty who are responsible and directors of the residency program in their colleges, is a privilege.

As a matter of fact, continuous medical education especially for the young doctors including residents and fellows in ophthalmology departments is of a global interest. It is also considered as one of the milestones in medical education. The outcome of this promotion and interest in medical education will be of great influence for both the young doctors and patients. It will also include a better research overview and correct successful application.

I hope through this condensed program that it will improve our view towards residency education program in different medical schools in the Arab world. Through your support and interaction with the different aspects of this program it will be reflected on the medical education and the medical welfare of our patients.

Thank you all again and I hope to enjoy and benefit from this remarkable program.

Dr. Fathi El-Sahan
Chairman of the Course, Cairo

Greetings

On behalf of the International Council of Ophthalmology (ICO), we would like to welcome you to the third program of "Educating Ophthalmic Educators Across the Globe". The mission of the meeting is to promote learning and education in ophthalmic training worldwide. We hope that by sharing knowledge, developing networking opportunities, and developing a cadre of like-minded educators, that we can enhance the quality of resident and specialist education in ophthalmology across the globe. There are many people and organizations endorsing this activity, including the Egyptian Society of Ophthalmology, The Arab Board of Ophthalmology, The Middle East African Council of Ophthalmology, The American Academy of Ophthalmology, and the Association of University Professors of Ophthalmology. We thank you for taking the time to join us in this unique endeavor.

We hope that you will find the information and contacts that you make these next two days will be inspirational and educational.
