

World Ophthalmic Education Colloquium (WOEC) Sessions at the WOC 2012

As part of the third World Ophthalmic Education Colloquium (WOEC), the ICO Education Committee will present eight symposia February 17-20, 2012, designed to attract attendees of different interests and spotlighting various aspects of ophthalmic education.

The WOEC is open to all members of the ophthalmic community with the goal of helping ophthalmic educators and others enhance the training and continuing education of ophthalmologists and other eye care personnel. It builds on the success of the 2008 and 2010 Colloquia in Hong Kong and Berlin.

The 2012 WOEC program features almost 50 speakers covering essential topics in ophthalmic education that are of interest to ophthalmologists and allied ophthalmic personnel.
